If divorced they must not have remarried without having first established freedom to do so through the process of a diocesan Tribunal. They should be able to commit to assisting the Confirmation candidate in growing in their understanding and practice of the Catholic faith both now and in the future. If you have further questions about canonical requirements for sponsors please contact the parish office.*

Registration costs $85 and covers the cost of consumable student materials as well as food and lodging for the required Confirmation Retreat. Please make your checks out to "Christ the King Parish."

Payment in full is required by Tuesday, October 4th, 2011. If the registration fee causes undue hardship for your family, please contact the office to discuss your circumstances and possible options.

Please mail completed form(s) and registration fees to:
